

DIVERSITY and LEADERSHIP

Jean Lau Chin
Joseph E. Trimble

658.4092
C539D
2015
c.1

සබ්මිෂන් වෙත සාගර ප්‍රකාශන

Brief Contents

---

Preface	xv
Acknowledgments	xvii
Chapter 1: Leadership for the 21st Century	1
Chapter 2: Dimensions of Diversity	21
Chapter 3: Paradigms for Diversity Leadership	53
Chapter 4: Leader Identity	87
Chapter 5: Leadership Style	115
Chapter 6: Organizational Contexts With Contributions by Beauregard Stubblefield-Tave	145
Chapter 7: Societal Contexts of Leadership With Contributions by Beauregard Stubblefield-Tave	179
Chapter 8: Applications—Training Culturally Competent and Diverse Leaders	207
Chapter 9: Applications—Training Culturally Competent Organizations With Contributions From Roger Husbands and Beauregard Stubblefield-Tave	237
Chapter 10: Developing a Paradigm of Diversity Leadership	255
References	281
Index	305
About the Authors	319

Cultural Competence and Sensitivity	29
Multiculturalism	31
Multicultural Incompetence	31
Difference	33
Diversity and Cross-Cultural	34
Dominant-Minority Relations	35
Privilege and Marginal Statuses	35
Power and Empowerment	36
Ethnocentric Bias in Current Theories of Leadership	36
Reframing Current Theories to Include Diversity	39
Identifying the Gap in Diversity and Leadership	41
Contexts of Leadership	42
The Culture of Organizations	42
Diverse Leader-Member-Organizational Exchange Paradigm (DLMOX)	43
Redefining Leadership: Inclusive of Social Contexts and Systems	45
Salience of Culture and Diversity in New Forms of Leadership	46
Differences in Worldviews	46
Collaboration as a Leadership Style	48
Leader Identity	49
From Exception to Inclusive	50
Summary	50
Discussion Questions: Valuing Differences—Diverse and Global Leadership	51
Chapter 3: Paradigms for Diversity Leadership	53
Notable Quotes: “Other” Views of Leadership	53
Vignette: Images of Leaders: Have Times Changed?	53
New Paradigms of Leadership: DLMOX	54
Diversity Leadership Paradigms	55
Cultural Values	55
Multidimensional and Complex	56
Social Justice Orientation	56
Intersecting Ethical Principles and Diverse Leadership	56
Grounded Research Theory—Emic Approaches	58
Cultural Measurement Equivalence	59
Etic-Emic Approaches to Measurement	60
Back Translation	61
Creating New Paradigms	62

Theory Z: From Ethnocentric to Global	66
Servant Leadership: From Privilege to Inclusive	66
Daoist Leadership: Promoting Different Worldviews and Cultural Values	67
Feminist Leadership: Does Difference Make a Difference?	69
Invisible and Reluctant Leadership: Promoting Ethnic Minority Perspectives	69
Incorporating Non-Western Perspectives in Leadership	70
Relationships: Quanxi and Ren-Qing in Leadership	72
Performance-Maintenance Theory	74
Hierarchy: Benevolent Paternalism	75
Prophetic-Caliphal Leadership	76
Implicit Leadership Theories: Cross-Cultural Perspectives	77
Contrasting Western Versus Eastern Worldviews	77
Collectivism Versus Individualism	78
Humanistic-Altruistic Orientation	78
Conflict Management and Negotiation across Cultures	79
Expanding Current Theories to Include Diversity	80
Egalitarianism Versus Hierarchical Orientations	81
Work-Family Interface	82
Interpersonal Relationships Versus Task Orientations	83
Cooperation Versus Competition	83
Power to Empowerment	83
Summary	84
Discussion Questions: Reframing Leadership Theories—Research to Evolve New Paradigms	84
Chapter 4: Leader Identity	87
Notable Quotes: On Racial/Ethnic Identity	87
On Gender Perceptions	87
On Ethnic Minority Leaders	87
Vignette: Passing for White	87
Shift From Leader Traits to Leader Identity	88
Self: Who Leaders Are	89
Independent Versus Interdependent Self-Construals	89
Racial and Ethnic Identity	91
Gender Identity	93
Other Dimensions of Diversity	96
Multiple and Intersecting Identities	98
Aversive Racism	99

Social Identities and Leadership	100
Leader Prototypes: Based on Narrow Gender and Racial Stereotypes	100
LMX Leadership Theories Favor Dominant In-Groups	101
Leadership Identity and Social Power	102
Salience of Social Identities Among Leaders	102
Cognitive Flexibility	103
Leadership Qualities and Social Categorization	103
Leadership as an Outcome of Social Categorization Process	104
Content of Leadership Categories	105
Social Power and Leadership Power	105
Status Characteristics and Emergence of Leadership	106
Double Standards: Influence of Social Categories on Expectations of Leaders	107
Procedural Fairness	107
Influence and Individual-Centric Versus Collective-Centric Identity	108
Changing Images of Leaders	110
Image Management	110
Status and Legitimacy	111
Challenges and Dilemmas	112
Summary	113
Discussion Questions: Developing Self-Awareness—From Leadership Traits to Identity	114
Chapter 5: Leadership Style	115
Notable Quotes	115
Vignette: Invisible Leadership—"Pushing From Behind"	115
Leadership Styles	116
Value Dimensions in Leadership Styles	116
Are Differences in Leadership Style Related to Gender, Race, or Ethnicity?	117
Task Versus Relationship Leadership Styles	117
Assertiveness	119
Transformational Leadership Style	119
Transformational Versus Transactional	120
Charisma	120
Cultural Variation	123
Collaborative Leadership Style	124

Women and Collaboration	125
Collectivism	125
Team Leadership	127
Servant Leadership	127
Ethical Leadership	128
Virtuous Leadership	128
Failure of Leadership	130
Fairness: Procedurally Fair	130
Humane Leadership	131
Confucian Leadership	131
Benevolent Paternalism	132
Authentic Leadership	135
Authenticity and Bicultural Leaders	136
Feminist Leadership	137
Global and Multiethnic Focus	138
Authenticity and Chinese Leadership	138
Leadership Styles of Traditional Native American Indians	139
Challenges and Dilemmas	142
Leading Change	142
Value Judgments	142
Summary	142
Discussion Questions: Multidimensional Leadership Styles Amidst Diverse and Global Contexts	143
Chapter 6: Organizational Contexts
With Contributions by Beanregard Stubblefield-Tave	145
Notable Quotes: On Self-Disclosure	145
Vignette on Gender: Masculinized Contexts—"It Is       What It Is!"	145
Organizational Culture	148
Organizational Culture: Academic Health Center	148
Changing Organizational Culture Toward       Becoming Diverse	149
Multinational Organizational Cultures	149
Power Distribution	150
Organizational Culture Across Industry Sectors	151
Health Care Sector	152
Corporate Sector	154
Higher Education Sector	155
Community Nonprofit Sector	159
Government/Military Sector	159
Multinational and Global Organizations	161

Organizational Structure	162
Inclusive Workplace Model	163
In-Group Versus Out-Groups	164
Intergroup Leadership	165
Organizational Composition	165
Dominant Versus Minority Social Identity Status of the Leader	166
Mainstream Versus Minority Group Status of the Organization	167
Heterogeneous Versus Homogeneous Composition of the Organization	168
Challenges of Intersection	168
Diverse Leader-Member-Organizational Exchange Paradigm	170
Mapping Organizational Contexts	170
Measuring Organizational Culture: Tools Versus Instinct	171
Performance Appraisals	172
Organizational Diversity Leadership Skill Sets	173
Organizational Fit	173
Adapt or Conform	173
Intercultural Competence	173
Importance of a Reconciliation Process	175
Summary	176
Discussion Questions; Promoting Organizational Change—Building Organizational Cultures	177
Chapter 7: Societal Contexts of Leadership
With Contributions by Beauregard Stubblefield-Tate	179
Notable Quote: On Culture and Expressing Affect—“It’s a Different Experience”	179
Vignette on Social Responsibility	179
Hong Kong Versus China: A Case Example	180
Global Contexts: Cultural Orientation Value Dimensions	181
Universality	182
Power; Competition and Cooperation	182
Collectivism and Individualism	184
Egalitarianism; Masculinity-Femininity	187
Humane and Social Responsibility	188
Diverse Contexts: Influence of Lived Experiences	188
Social Zeitgeist	189
In-Groups Versus Out-Groups	189

Credibility	190
Privilege Versus Marginal Status	191
Racism	191
Biculturalism: Acculturation and Immigration	192
Masculinized Contexts	193
Intersections of Race, Ethnicity, and Gender in Masculinized Contexts	195
Role Constraints	196
Double Binds	198
Stressors	199
Biased Performance Appraisals	199
Public Policy	201
Community Benefits	201
Chinese Exclusion Acts	202
Golden Dilemmas: Ordinary People Can Become Great
Diversity Leaders	203
Summary	204
Discussion Questions: Golden Dilemmas—Social Zeitgeist and Global Contexts	205
Chapter 8: Applications—Training Culturally Competent and Diverse Leaders	207
Notable Quotes on Minority Leadership	207
Vignette on Cultural Competence Awareness Training	207
Purpose of Diversity Leadership Training	208
Training for Culturally Competent Leaders: KSA Model	209
Developing Culturally Fluent Leaders: Training Applications	211
Training Diverse Leaders	214
Leader Self-Awareness: Self-Assessment	214
Leader Skills: Developing Cultural Fluency	216
Leader Knowledge: Dimensions of Cultural Difference	216
Dimensions of Cultural Difference: Leader Skill Sets	216
Power Distance	217
Uncertainty Avoidance	217
Individualism and Collectivism	218
Gender Differentiation	218
Universalism and Particularism	219
Neutral Versus Affective	219
Specific Versus Diffuse	219
Achievement Versus Ascription	220
Attitudes Toward Time Control	220

Summary	253
Discussion Questions	254
Chapter 10: Developing a Paradigm of Diversity Leadership	255
Vignette: On a Paradigm for Diversity Leadership	255
Changing the Prototype: Evolving and Emergent	257
Culturally Diverse Leadership Prototypes	260
Redefining Leadership: Difference and Context	265
Rank Order of Leadership Characteristics	266
Shared Lived Experiences	266
Importance of Social Identities to Leadership	267
Leadership Styles	268
Maintaining Authenticity and Integrity	269
Self-Protection and Safety	270
Mentoring and Building Pipelines	270
Paradigm for Diversity Leadership	271
DLMOX Paradigm: Crosscutting Themes	273
Global	274
Diverse	274
Leader Identity	274
Leadership Style Dimensions	275
Lived Experiences	275
Contexts	275
New Paradigms	276
Summary	277
Discussion Questions: Future Directions—Evolving a DLMOX Paradigm	278
References	281
Index	305
About the Authors	319