

Leading Through

Collaboration

658.4036

G

G548L

Groups to Productive Solutions

2005

e.1

JOHN GLASER

Contents

Preface	ix
Acknowledgments	xiii
About the Author	xv
Part I: Staying on One Page: An Attitude of Coherence	1
1. Coherence: The Mysterious and Scientific Side of Problem Solving	3
2. Starting With the Self: Attitudes and Habits That Promote Collaboration	19
3. Creating Shared Meaning: Moving From Discord To Collaboration	31
4. The Perils of Coherence: Bad Agreements, False Coherence, and Groupthink	51
Part II: Tools and Strategies for Leading Through Collaboration	67
5. The Fundamental Elements for Creating Coherence	69
6. Aligning the Team	81
7. Focusing on the Vision	107
8. Searching for Solutions	121
9. Reaching Effective Agreements	141
10. Bringing Coherence to the Entire Organization	173
References	195
Index	199